

First Presbyterian Church
Inclusion Committee presents

Parents And Relatives Accessing Solutions for extraOrdinary Lives

A one day special needs conference and vendor fair

Saturday, September 8, 2018 8:30 - 4:00

First Presbyterian Church- Jacksonville, IL

Topics Include

- History of disability in America
- Community living for adults with DD
- Accessing community supports
- IEPs and advocacy
- “Creating a Therapeutic Life, Not a Life Full of Therapies”
A round table/panel discussion with parents and professionals.
Bring your problems here, and let’s put our hive mind to work!

Cost is $5
Pay at the door or drop off at the church.

TO REGISTER,
CHECK OUT
OUR EVENT ON FACEBOOK
OR CLICK HERE!

Presenters

Taylor Sweeting
Keynote- Autism Self-Advocate
Sandy Valentine
Equip for Equality
Levi Graham of DD Homes
Michele and Aubrie Westmaas
Expect ExtraOrdinary

Also, visit the Scholastic Book Fair
benefitting
Jacksonville Special Ed PTO

FAMILY READING NIGHT

September 11, 6-7:30PM

First Presbyterian Church, 870 West College Ave.

Join us for fun games,
snacks, crafts, door
prizes, and great books!
All proceeds benefit
special education
services in School
District 117.

All ages and abilities are welcome!